

FAMILY POLICY COUNCIL
WEST VIRGINIA

For Immediate Release:

2018 CANDIDATE ENDORSEMENT

THE FAMILY POLICY COUNCIL OF WEST VIRGINIA ENDORSES

CANDIDATE ERIC HOUSEHOLDER
FOR WV STATE HOUSE DISTRICT #64

April 24, 2018 - The Family Policy Council of West Virginia endorses Candidate Eric Householder for House of Delegates District #64, in the May 8th Republican primary.

House Delegate Eric Householder has proven that he's willing to defend the First Amendment right of religious freedom and free speech. And Householder believes ALL life has value, from conception till natural death.

Every candidate wants more jobs for West Virginia but what good is a job, or even a million dollars from it, if the government can take it all from you in the courts because they don't like your religious beliefs?

Allen Whitt, President of the Family Policy Council, on the endorsement of Candidate Eric Householder, "District 64 needs the courage of Eric Householder's convictions. West Virginia's future lies in our proven house leaders." Eric Householder has been consistent over his whole career defending faith, family and freedom in West Virginia. He's the most solid choice in the primary race for H64."

The Family Policy Council is West Virginia's largest lobbying organization positively impacting laws, lawmakers and if necessary, elections, to defend faith, family and freedom in the Mountain State.

P.O. Box 566 • Charleston, WV 25322 p: 304.756.8567
e: info@FamilyPolicyWV.com • www.FamilyPolicyWV.com